

Stanford, Ky., - - - July 12, 1887

W. P. WALTON.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

F. R. GOVERNOR—SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER, of Hart County.
 LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR—JAMES W. BRYAN, of Kenton county.
 ATTORNEY GENERAL—P. W. HARDIN, of Mercer county.
 AUDITOR—FAYETTE HEWITT, of Hardin county.
 TREASURER—JAMES W. TATE, of Woodford county.
 SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—JOSEPH DESHA PICKETT, of Fayette county.
 REGISTER OF THE LAND OFFICE—THOMAS H. CORBETT, of McCracken county.
 LEGISLATURE—DR. J. D. PETTUS, Lincoln county.

THE President has withdrawn his acceptance of the invitation to attend the meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic at St. Louis in September and in a dignified and patriotic letter states his reasons therefor. Warned by the ravings of such cattle as Tuttle, Fairchild and others of like ilk, he does not propose to place himself in a position to be insulted by fools and fanatics, because he owes it to the people to protect the honor and dignity of the government represented in his person. The letter is so mainly in tone and straightforward in expression that it has completely turned the tables on the Grand Army asses, who have brayed so incessantly at him since he vetoed the pauper pension bill, and made him more solid with the masses than ever. The sutlers, the coffee-coolers, the bounty-jumpers and the deserters, who have enskined their way into an organization which ought to command the respect of the country, will find that it is not ready to be turned over to them as a simple machine for the collection of taxes to pay pensions to men who do not deserve them, and that the grand old man in the White House cannot be swayed from his honesty of purpose by threatening blatherers and anxious raiders upon the public treasury.

THERE is one grand army post at least that is not disposed to make an ass of itself, the General Landers, of Lynn, Mass. Returning from a visit to the Virginia battle fields it called on the President in a body and he received them in the elegant East Room of the White House. As assembling the commander of the post, General Walker, proposed "three cheers for Grover Cleveland, president of the United States" and the lusty voices sent up a shout that shook the grand old building. The president then shook hands with each member saying that the visit was peculiarly gratifying to him, that he respected and loved the brave men who bared their bosoms in defense of their country in the hour of its need and that the insane ravings of a few cranks in the organization of the Grand Army of the Republic could not and would not effect his feelings of admiration for the thousands of others who are as magnanimous in peace as they were brave in war. The meeting was thoroughly enjoyed by both the ex-soldiers and the president and they left him with higher feelings of respect for the head of the government than they had ever experienced.

THE republican papers are reproducing a proclamation issued by President Jefferson Davis in December 1862, which declares Benjamin F. Butler, a felon deserving capital punishment, to be treated as a public enemy of the Confederate States and ordering the officer in command in event of his capture to cause him to be immediately executed by hanging. His commissioned officers were also to be considered robbers and criminals and to be reserved for execution whenever captured. We don't know so much about the latter part of the order, but we believe the country generally will regret that so far as the Old Boss is concerned, he had not been captured and dealt with as the proclamation directs.

LESS than three weeks remain till the election between which time and now some good local work of organization must be effected. Barbecues and such blow outs are good enough in their places, but the real work must be done by local committees. We suggest to the chairman of this and other counties to call meetings at once and appoint speakers and workers who can be depended on to pull off their coats and see that the full vote is brought out. If Buckner's majority is one less than Knott's was Bradley will claim it as a victory.

A DISPATCH states that there is talk in Washington of a move to have all the democratic soldiers withdrawn from the Grand Army of the Republic, which has become nothing less than an auxiliary of the republican party. After the recent partisan action of the body and its despicable treatment of the bravest and best man who has held the office of President of the United States since Jackson, it is hard to see how any self-respecting democrat can remain in it.

THE Register is disposed to be severe on our friend, Billy Bradley. It says that since he became a renegade from the democratic party he seems to have made it a study never to tell the truth when a lie will answer the purpose, and that he made a perfect ass of himself during his exhibition in Richmond.

THE city council of Nicholasville are a narrow-minded, hide-bound set. They refuse to allow Editor Kerr to put an engine in his printing office for fear it might burst and set the town afire again, and the editor very wisely decides to leave the poky old place.

DR. E. D. STANDFORD, the public-spirited millionaire, has presented the city of Louisville with 140 acres of land lying just outside of its eastern limits and admirably adapted for park purposes. We do not know how long he has contemplated making the gift, but are sure that the happy feelings produced by the possession of a beautiful young wife hastened its bestowal.

THE school per capita for 1887-8 shows an increase of 25 cents over the former figure, being $1.90. Considering the large increase in the number of children, this is very gratifying, but will no doubt sit badly on the in-bards of Mr. O'Bradley.

A WOMAN in Philadelphia has been indicted for eavesdropping and retailing the scandalous information she received thereby. It is a pity the crime is not included in the list of capital offenses.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.

—The books show 26,235 voters registered in Louisville.

—Henry Watterson has gone to Block Island for the summer, owing to ill health.

—Henry Morgan, a Knoxville drummer, was murdered in Harlan county by a man named Martin.

—Oscar Kelley, who killed his wife, was taken from the jail at Portland, Oregon, and hung by a mob.

—The Cynthia barbecue was attended by 6,000 people and there was the utmost enthusiasm and good order.

—At Somerset an oil and gas company has been organized with a $250,000 capital. Operations will begin at once.

—W. T. Jones, democratic nominee for representative from Jessamine county, has withdrawn from the ticket in the interest of party harmony.

—The June fire record shows a total loss of $10,182,100, a million more than June 1886 and four million more than any other June for ten years.

—The experimental test farm of the National Agricultural Department, in South Carolina, has been abandoned, having proven a complete failure.

—Nine workmen employed on a new railroad in Chester county, South Carolina, were blown to pieces by a premature discharge of blasting powder.

—Abe Johnson, the negro who killed William Grudgell two months ago at Lawrenceburg, was arrested at Nicholasville. The governor had offered $150 reward for him.

—A young man named Gammon, who had circulated some bad reports about the daughter of William Brooks, was shot and killed by the latter, near Dixon's Springs, Tenn.

—Mr. John D. Van Gordon, living at Dingman's Ferry, Pike county, Virginia, was stung on the wrist by a bee and died from the effects of the injury a few minutes afterward.

—One thousand Hungarian strikers, armed to the teeth, are camping on one of the hillsides of Pennsylvania, threatening to annihilate all who take their places at the valley below.

—A mob took a negro from jail at Petersburg, Virginia, took him to the scene of his rape and had placed a rope around his neck, when the sheriff arrived with a posse and rescued him.

—Adam Freeman, colored, who died in the Alabama penitentiary, confessed just before death that he set fire to a house on Sand Mountain, in August, 1884, for which three men were hanged.

—William Holman, who was to have been hanged at Dalton, Ga., Friday, was given a life sentence by Gordon and ordered to the Rising Fawn coal mines. In Dalton the Governor was burned in effigy.

—Hon. Frank Wolford has been invited to reply to Hon. Frank Finley here on the 18th. As Wolford observed when he was attacked by Morgan during the war, "Boys, there's going to be a hell of a fight!"

—Dr. Cullum, committed suicide in New Orleans by cutting his throat and dying while the guests were assembling to witness his marriage to a young lady of that city. He was afflicted with an incurable disease.

—When the vault of the Perry county, Indiana, treasurer's office was opened with the keys returned by the absconding treasurer, Miller, it contained only a pair of suspenders and three 2-cent stamps. Miller's defalcation amounts to $50,000.

—The Superintendent of Public Instruction announces that the common school per capita for the next year will be $1.90. The census shows 549,592 white children of the school age, an increase of 10,637, and 107,144 colored children, an increase of 4,390.

—Oscar J. Harvey, of Pennsylvania, chief of the Law Division of the Second Controller's office, is under arrest for forgery. He forged 200 horse claims for $200 each, and is known to have collected $9,200, which amount represents not one quarter of the claims forged.

—If the political soldiers keep the President away from the encampment very many veterans of both political parties will sever their connection with an order which will then have been shown to be political in its character and management. (Gen. Drake, U. S. Grant Post 93, G. A. R.)

—The Missouri Supreme Court, in the case of Brooks, alias Maxwell, condemned for the murder of C. Arthur Preller, overruled the motion for a rehearing. A rehearing was granted the defendant until August 26. The defense will take an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

—Samuel Scott, working in his father's field near Guntersville, Ala., went to a spring and lay down to drink. While drinking a rattlesnake that was coiled there struck him in the face and clung there until the boy tore it away and stamped it to death. Then he ran home and died in 8 hours in spite of all effort to save his life.

—Four thousand bushels of blue-grass seed sold in Bourbon at 50 cents.

—Eight Italians were victims of the mine disaster at Sturgeon River, Mich.

—Yellow fever record at Key West—Total cases, 83; death 27; sick at present, 33; discharged cured, 23.

—A number of business houses in St. Louis have withdrawn their subscriptions to the Grand Army fund since by its pusillanimous action the President has been forced to withdraw his acceptance of the invitation to attend.

—Another attempt was made to shoot J. B. Spears, foreman of the Jessamine Journal office. This is the third time he has escaped a bullet within two years. The shot fired Friday at him by an unknown hand played close to a lock of his hair.

—At Tarboro, North Carolina, Austin Hart, a negro, was recently lynched for a brutal assault on a young white woman. The negroes of the neighborhood say there was insufficient evidence against Hart, and threaten to get even by lynching the young lady on whom the assault was committed.

—Seventeen variety performers were burned to death in the Alcazar Theatre, at Hurler, Wisconsin, Saturday night. The actors were hemmed in by the flames, which spread rapidly, and only two of the company got out alive. The fire extended to other buildings and half the town was destroyed. The property loss is placed at $500,000.

DANVILLE, BOYLE COUNTY.

—Dr. B. M. Farmer, the eminent Presbyterian divine of New Orleans, preached at the First Presbyterian church Sunday.

—The much needed rains continue to fall in Boyle county in spots. On Monday and Tuesday of last week there were heavy rains in some places, while in others there was none at all.

—About 160 colored people came from Louisville Sunday to hear Rev. Isaac Slaughter, of the Colored Baptist Church, preach. Rev. Slaughter's text was from the 1st chapter of Luke and his sermon a very able one. The Louisville people went home on the midnight train.

—John Owsley, a crippled colored boy fell in with some colored excursionists from Louisville Sunday and succeeded in getting so drunk that he became a little noisy in the vicinity of the depot. He was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Bailey and fined $5 by County Judge Lee.

—Mrs. James S. Carlsman went to Harrodsburg last Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. Roberts. Several days ago her little twin girls, Katie and Mattie, were taken violently ill with diphtheria. At 8:30 o'clock this (Monday) morning Mr. Carlsman dispatched to his uncle, Mr. W. W. Tomkins, "Katie died last night; Mattie almost gone."

—The banquet given Thursday night by Utopia Lodge, Knights of Pythias, to Grand Chancellor Rudy was a very pleasant affair. In the first place, Thorell, the host of the Clemens House, prepared a supper that would have tickled the palate of old Epicure himself and after that Mr. Logan McKee welcomed the guests in an appropriate speech; Chancellor Rudy replied and then Messrs. J. H. Letcher, W. B. Nichols and A. E. Gibbons responded to toasts. Altogether the evening was agreeably spent and it was a big occasion for the flourishing order by whom the entertainment was given.

—Capt. D. A. Murphy, who now edits and publishes the Finley, Ohio, Tribune, is in town and reports all sorts of business enterprises flourishing in that city. There has been an increase of 3,000 in the population since he went there a few months ago. Capt. W. E. Grubbs is in town this morning. He is engaged in superintending the erection of a $25,000 hotel at Nicholasville, instead of one to cost $1,500 as a mistaken newspaper person telegraphed from Nicholasville to the Courier Journal. Dr. C. B. H. Martin of the 21 Presbyterian church is spending a month's vacation with friends in Indiana. Deputy U. S. Marshal W. O. Owsley, of Lancaster, was in town to day on business. Mr. Owsley makes an efficient officer and is popular with all classes because of the gentlemanly manner in which he discharges his duties.

—Prior to last spring Abe Singleton had been keeping company with Georgianne Hoskins. At that time Abe went to Somerset, having obtained employment there. Georgianne remained here, but visited Abe occasionally and wrote him affectionate letters in which she addressed him as "My dear husband," and signed herself "Your loving wife, Georgianne Singleton." She was not exactly Abe's wife, but she subscribed herself that way anyhow. During the last week in June Abe came from Somerset in response to one of Georgianne's invitations, but when he arrived here he found her sadly changed and enjoying the society of another fellow. Abe remonstrated and reminded her of the presents he had given her, when she took from a trunk a hat, a dress, a skirt and other articles of clothing, threw them at Abe and told him never to come near her again. Abe took her at her word, but when he had departed with the goods she tried to take them from him.

Abe left them with Pete Mitchell and told him to give them back to Georgianne next day, but that female still on the war path had Abe arrested at Somerset for robbery and brought back for trial. Judge Young tried the case on Saturday and promptly acquitted the defendant.

One of our lawyers being asked a few days since what a contingent fee was, said: "If I bring a suit for you and lose the case I get nothing; if I win the suit you get nothing." (Hudson Republican.)

With microbes in the drinking water typhoid, in ice cream, malaria in water-melons, Bright's disease in beer and paralysis in iced tea, wherewithal may the thirsty soul refresh itself in summer time?

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—Yesterday was quarterly court in Lancaster.

—Wheat is still dull at 65 cents. Very few farmers are selling. Most of it is stacked.

—The Citizens National bank declared no July dividend, but carried the earnings of the past six months to the surplus fund increasing it to $8,000.

—Robert and Hiram Collier, two of our prominent farmers, made an assignment Saturday, the former to W. H. Kinnaird, the latter to J. C. Thompson. I do not know the assets or liabilities.

—Copious rains have fallen since my last report and if we don't have a good corn crop there's nothing in the old adage, "A dry June for a good corn crop, &c."

—C. Terrell sold to Mr. Caruthers, of Lexington, two mules for $225, one of them an aged mule. He also sold to E. H. Walker 4 head of cattle for $135.

—A mortgage on the roadbed and rolling stock of the K. C. railroad for $7,000, 000 to the Metropolitan Trust Co., N. Y., was recorded in our county clerk's office last week.

—Much regret is felt by our citizens that the Hon. Henry Watterson will not be able to attend the barbecue. There isn't a more popular man in the State, with Garrard county democrats, than Mr. Watterson and everybody was anxious to see him. We all hope he may soon be well again.

—Contrary to our expectations there has been no rush on the part of our customers to pay their accounts, which were due July 1st. This is not as it should be. We sell goods at just the same prices as the cash stores and in common justice we are entitled to our money when it is due. This is intended for you if you owe us anything and we hope you will so consider it. Rept. G. D. Burdett & Co.

—Joshua Burdett, an employee at Miller's Hotel, left Sunday for Louisville, where he goes as a delegate to the Grand Lodge of Old Fellows. Mr. Jo Haselden, one of our citizens, has removed to Danville to live. He has rented his store room and residence to a Richmond man who will run a bakery and confectionery here. Willie Watson, of Atlanta, is on a visit to his mother, Mrs. Judge Pherigo, of this city. Mr. John Brewer has returned from a six weeks business trip. Bernard Ashley and Max Scott left yesterday for Kansas City, where the former has a position as telegraph operator. Mrs. R. R. West and children, of Washington City, are visiting John R. West, Esq. W. O. Sweeney and father have returned from Cincinnati. C. L. Brown, the jovial Genl. Freight Agent of the K. C., has been up to see Superintendent Battis. Miss Mattie Smith has returned from the Boston Conservatory of Music, a graduate. An elegant party was given by the Misses Marksbury on Friday evening, in honor of Miss Dodd, of Nashville, who is visiting them.

BARBECUE NOTES.

Now let the band begin to play. There will be 100 carcasses roasted. An ample police force will be on hand to keep order.

The big kettles for the burgoo are expected to arrive to day.

A Backer club will be organized here as soon as the barbecue is over.

Gilcher Bros., of Danville, get the contract to furnish 2,000 pounds of bread.

There will be two speakers' stands. Everybody shall have enough speaking.

Don't forget the place of entrance, near Capt. Elkin's residence. Flags will be used to mark it.

How many of our citizens are going to decorate their places of business? Let everybody do it.

Trains will run from Lancaster to the grounds every 30 minutes. Tickets for the round trip 15 cents.

A notable feature of the occasion will be M. D. Hughes on horseback. He rides like one of the English Guards.

The democracy of Garrard will not forget Capt. Elkin. I nominate him for the Legislature two years hence. Who'll second the nomination?

The ladies are expected to turn out in full force. There were 3,000 of them at Cynthia's. Nothing adds so much to an occasion of this kind as pretty women. Don't fail us ladies.

There is no more affiliation between temperance and politics than between religion and politics. The former is too pure, too good to become associated without self-injury. Pouring temperance, like religion, into politics is like pouring pure water into ink. It only increases the quantity of the latter, and the bright, sparkling, ennobling qualities of the former are totally destroyed. Politics, by a union, can be of no assistance to the temperance cause. Temperance must secure her supporters, her friends, from among the members of the different parties without asking that they alienate themselves from their party and she must conform her mode of operations so that they may consistently assist her. (Grayson Gazette.)

An English fashion in hair cutting is being taken up by the anxious young men, though there are only a few barbers in New York who can do it properly. It is to have the hair singed. It is first cut as usual, but not very close. Then a long taper is lighted, a comb is rapidly run over the head with the taper above it until the end of each hair has been touched by the flames. Not more than one-sixteenth of an inch of any hair is burned when the work is done by the skillful operator. Singeing is supposed to prevent baldness and to give the hair a naty appearance. In England the singeing costs extra and the barbers here are doubtful whether to rank it as an extra hair cut or a shampoo. (New York Sun.)

If the correspondent at Crab Orchard had signed his name to his letter we might have given it space, but we can't put the word of an anonymous scribbler against the combined testimony of a dozen good men.

AS WE predicted the INTERIOR JOURNALS did the Lancasters up. It was a bad game all around, however, the score standing 36 to 26. Our namesakes will go over to Lancaster next Friday and beat the boys on their own grounds.

I HAVE sold out my business at Junction City and ask those indebted to me to please come forward and settle. An early settlement will save both of us trouble and ex-

MRS. TARRANT will institute suit against the Courier-Journal for willful and malicious libel, which consists in the statement that she is over 70 years of age, and any jury who looks upon the handsome young widow will award her any amount of damages she may claim. The best lawyers in the State will take the case on a contingent fee.

THE entertainment given by the Lancaster Calisthenic Club came fully up to expectations. The young ladies are thoroughly drilled and their evolutions were graceful and pretty as could be. Mrs.
Belle Barnside furnished the instrumental music in a very excellent manner and the performers kept time to it with the precision of clock work. Major Harry A. Evans is general manager of the club and he has reason to be proud of its proficiency. The only regret is that it was not better patronized, considering the good cause it was for.
But our people are called on to aid in such matters so often that they can hardly be censured for non-attendance. The entire proceeds were less than $50.

ALL the preparations for the Grand Democratic Rally and Barbecue are complete and Col. W. S. Miller, chairman of the committee on arrangements, says he will be prepared to set a dinner for 15,000 people and give them the best burgoo besides they ever swallowed. All the advertised speakers will be on hand, save Mr. Watterson, who is ill; the State Central Committee will be there in a body; so also the Blackburn Club, of Lexington, besides prominent men from all parts of the State. It is going to be a day to be remembered and we hope every man in this section will make it a point to attend. The ladies are also especially requested to grace the occasion with their presence. Remember the day is Thursday, the 14th, and the place Capt.
Tom Ekin's woodland, just over the Garrard and Lincoln line.

IN FORIT.—The examining trial of W.
H. Pollock, the L. & N. brakeman, charged with breaking into and robbing a car at Lebanon Junction of a box of boots, the property of D. W. Vandever, of this place, occurred at Shepherdsville, Tuesday, and the proof of his guilt being conclusive he has held for further trial in the sum of $250, which he could not give and was returned to jail. It seems that he has been at the business for some time and from those who attended we learn that a sufficient number of cases have been developed against him to keep him in the State prison 40 years. A negro woman, who is also said to have been his mistress, acted as his agent at Lebanon Junction and sold the stolen articles. A search of her house revealed much of the result of his thefts.
Friday his home at Rowland was searched and more stolen goods found. Pollock is a native of this county and a man that might have done well but for a natural tendency to devilment.

THE entertainment given by Misses Leila and Altie Marksbury, of Lancaster, in honor of their guest, Miss Katie Dodd, of Nashville, on Friday evening last, was one of the most brilliant as well as thoroughly enjoyable affairs that it has ever been the good fortune of our Business Manager to attend.

At 8:30 the large crowd was well high assembled and until 2 A. M. the handsomely decorated parlors was the scene of happiness supreme. The reception committee was composed of Miss Katie Dodd, who was attired in a decolette costume of white mull with pink trimmings; diamond; Miss Nannie Wood, blue satin, lace overdress; diamond; and Messrs. C. C. Carson and E. C. Walton, Stanford. Misses Leila and Altie Marksbury, in costume of cream mull, lace; diamonds, respectively, did the entertaining in the most elegant style and the guests are under lasting obligations for the unlimited attention shown them. There were a large number of ladies from the surrounding towns present, besides the full corps of Lancaster's loveliest, and youthful beauty, arrayed in finest dress, was sufficient to captivate the eye and inspire the heart of the most callous beholder. The refreshments, served at 11, were in keeping with the rest of the delightful programme, and were discussed and enjoyed with a hearty relish.

We learn from Mr. H. R. Hiatt that his brother Jim was worse yesterday and thought to be in a dying condition.

STOCKHOLDERS in the Lincoln County Stock Association are requested to pay their subscriptions to J. H. Baughman, treasurer, immediately.

THE fair booth and feed privileges, etc., will be rented in Stanford on Wednesday, July 23, up to which time bids will be received therefor.

STANFORD LODGE No. 156 I. O. O. F. requests a full attendance of the members this evening. The committee on by-laws will make their report at this meeting.

THE rain though insufficient in quantity has greatly revived vegetation. Out on the farms of R. Cobb and others a waterspout occurred Saturday that did considerable damage.

THE Fair is a dead sure thing now. as will be seen by the list of premiums given herewith. The directory concluded that two days would be sufficient for the first exhibition and it will consequently be held July 28th and 29th.

THIEVES entered the store of W. S. Hilton, at Junction City, Friday night, and took from the safe which they picked open, about $90 in cash. A lot of calico and worsted goods are missed, the exact amount not known. Sheriff Newland searched the house of one of the suspected parties, a resident of Lincoln, on Saturday night, but nothing was found to prove him the guilty one.

THREE negroes in convict clothes went to Mrs. Hull's boarding house at Rowland Friday evening and demanded supper, which was given them by the proprietress, who was scared nearly out of her wits, knowing that there was no man in the house and fearing they would do her harm.
Instead of their fears being realized, they thanked her very kindly and departed. One of the negroes is a very large man and walks with a limp. Five convicts were seen together near Rowland a few days prior to this.

THOSE who have never tasted that delectable preparation known as "burgoo" have a treat in store next Thursday at the District Barbecue in Capt. Ekin's woods.
Gas Jaubert, of Lexington, the only man who knows how to make it to perfection, will be there with his two kettles, one holding 700 and the other 500 gallons, and will see that none goes away without partaking of it. He will also superintend the cooking of the rest of the big bill necessary for 15,000 people. Let everybody attend.

A SPECIAL train for the Barbecue Grounds will leave Louisville at 5 A. M. next Thursday, passing Lebanon at 7:45 o'clock, Junction City at 9 and arriving at its destination about 9:45. Returning leave the grounds at about 5 P. M. It will stop at all stations from New Haven this way and take passengers through at one fare for the round trip. The train will run between Stanford and the grounds as many times during the day as may be necessary. There will be a sufficient number of coaches attached to take all comfortably who may wish to come and enjoy the grandest thing of the kind ever attempted in Kentucky.
The Kentucky Central will also run a special train from Lexington the same day.

THE effort to establish a Building Association under the charter granted by the last Legislature is meeting with very gratifying success, 200 shares of the 300 needed being already subscribed. We are glad to observe that many railroad men are interesting themselves in it and have taken stock.
Such institutions not only pay the stockholders handsomely but help to build up a town by aiding those who wish to provide homes, for themselves, cheaply and easily.
Those wishing to subscribe can call on Capt. Frank Harris or W. H. Miller, Esq.
LATER.—Every share has been subscribed and we are asked to call a meeting of the stockholders for organization at the Court-House Saturday night next at 7:30.

SERIOUS CHARGE DISMISSED.—Judge Hansford and W. T. Stephenson were brought here Friday on a warrant charging them with allowing a prisoner to escape and were tried before Judge Carson, but were discharged because of the informality in which he was put in their charge.
It will be remembered that George Stephenson, charged with murder, was turned over to them at the suggestion of the court, and that they failed to turn him over to the court again at the time his trial was fixed for. Judge Vannon allowed his heart to get off with his head in the matter, upon representations of sickness, insanity and perhaps death in the family of the accused, and get picked up for it. It is safe to predict, however, that he will be more particular in the future as we learn that he feels very badly over the way his confidence and tender heartedness were abused.

DEATHS.

—Donald, the infant son of W. D. Newland, died Sunday of cholera infantum.

—D. W. Haydon, known to his friends as "Bud," died at Harrodsburg Saturday of typhoid fever, aged 22.

—Gen. Walter C. Whittaker, a prominent Louisville lawyer, died Saturday night at his country residence, after a lingering illness. He was 64 years old.

—CHANDLER.—Eight months ago to day the pleasant task of writing the marriage notice of a bright and happy young girl to the man of her choice devolved upon us.
Now the painful duty of recording her untimely death is ours. In the Christian church on the 10th of last November, Miss Ella Ramsey was led to the marriage altar by Mr. J. L. D. Chandler, a lovely bride.

To day in the same church he will weep over her dead body. Then all was hope and happiness, now all is darkness and despair. The merry marriage bells give way to the solemn funeral dirge and bright eyes on the former occasion are now suffused with tears. But such is the uncertainty of life, and frequent are the warnings to the living to prepare to meet their God! The dear young girl of whom we write had made that preparation and death found her ready and willing to go to the Father. She was a lovely Christian, loved by all and especially by the church, which she was ever ready to serve and her death will cause a pang of sorrow in the breasts of a legion of friends. After her marriage she went to live at Zanesville, Ohio, but falling ill of a brain trouble her husband brought her back to the parental roof where everything was done for her, alas in vain!
The dissolution came at 5:30 yesterday morning and the earthly bride became the bride of the Lamb. To day at 3 o'clock the same minister, Elder John Bell Gibson, who officiated at the marriage, will deliver the funeral discourse and the attendants on the former occasion will act as pall bearers on this. Then the remains will be laid to rest in Buffalo Springs Cemetery. If sympathy avail anything, then will the burden of grief be lifted from the hearts of husband, parents, brothers and sisters in this, the hour of their sorrow, for there is not a person in Stanford to day who does not grieve with them on their irreparable loss.

RELIGIOUS.

—The letter announcing the excommunication of Father McGinn was not read in the Catholic church of New York Sunday.

—Rev. Father Francis Dent, convicted of criminal libel on a brother priest, at Little Valley, New York, was sentenced to seven months' imprisonment in the Erie county penitentiary.

—The Baptist church has presented Rev.
P. G. Elsom with leave of absence for a month, during which time he will visit Virginia. The vacation is given to take effect after July 18th.

—Not long ago the fine $20,000 Methodist church of Jamestown, Ohio, was destroyed by a cyclone. It was rebuilt and Saturday it was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Providence is evidently opposed to its location.

—T. E. Lincoln county Sunday School Convention was slimly attended, but those present accomplished much good. Mr. R.
E. Barrow occupied the chair in the absence of S. E. Oweley, permanent chairman. The opening exercises were held by Eld. John Bell Gibson and the other presbyters took part in the programme.

—Elder Green Lee Surber preached his farewell sermon here last Sunday and when the good byes were said to him and wife, all eyes were dimmed with tears and all hearts united in prayer for blessings to attend them. Under Elder Surber's ministry of two and a half years, 133 persons have united with the church, and he leaves it with a united and happy membership of 534. The official board gave him a letter bearing testimony to his ability, faithfulness and piety as a pastor and teacher.
His address for a few weeks will be Shelby City, Ky. (Mt. Sterling Sentinel).

—A very large crowd was present at the dedication services at Bright's Sunday. Dr.
Morton, secretary of the Church Extension Board, preached the dedicatory sermon at 11 and preached again at 3:30. Between the two services an old-fashioned basket dinner was served, excellent in quality and apparently unlimited in quantity. The church is a handsome one, built on the most modern plan, with tall spire, and is a real monument to the generosity of the people who built it. Its total cost was $2,000 and but $1,000 of the amount had been raised prior to the dedication, when $850 additional was subscribed. Dr. G. A. Traylor doubled his subscription of $100; G. R.
Bright added $100 to his and many others were almost as liberal.
